

Literacy

Children will be beginning the term with a unit on poetry, using their guided reading skills to unpick a combination of modern and older poems that have to do with the theme of growing up and

ICT

Children will be developing their coding capabilities by designing

MFL

Children will continue to expand their vocabulary of everyday items in French as they begin

RE

Children will be learning about various religions (including Christianity, Hinduism and

Science

1st half of term - Living things and their habitats:

Looking at reproduction in plants and having a go at propagating our own.

Numeracy

Children will continue to follow the new national curriculum, with a focus on column and bus stop

Topic

(Geography/Art/DT)

This term our focus is on Geography. Studying a region of Europe.

Geography:

Children will locate the world's countries, using maps to focus on Europe. They will be concentrating on the environmental regions, key physical and human characteristics, countries, and major cities within this.

Art: Children will explore artwork throughout Europe and imaginatively extend

PSHE

Children will look at the importance of a sense of belonging, community and being a part of the wider world.